Tonight's Match

The Cedarville University men's soccer team opens the 2008 home schedule by hosting the Geneva College Golden Tornadoes tonight at Yellow Jacket Field. Geneva, a former member of the American Mideast Conference, is now part of the NCAA Division III and participates in the Presidents' Athletic Conference.

The Yellow Jackets began the 2008 campaign last night against NCAA Division III Denison University in Granville, OH. Also last evening, Geneva travelled to NCAA Division III Wilmington College to take on the Quakers in their initial action of the season.

The 2008 Yellow Jackets are looking forward to a successful season on the turf. A strong nucleus of players are back from last year's squad as well as three other key players return who missed either most or all of last season.

A trio of captains - Jason Cunningham, Kyle Segebart and Ryan Chaney - will lead the Yellow Jackets this year.

Anchoring the defense is sophomore Tim Green - the only player on the roster to start all 19 games last year. He was an All-NCCAA Midwest Region and All-AMC First Team selection.

The Jackets scored just 20 goals in 2007 but Head Coach Ben Bellemann is confident he now has the weapons to improve that number.

Geneva's Head Coach, Todd Beall, will have an opportunity to coach against his alma mater. He is a 2005 graduate of Cedarville with a bachelor's degree in Sport Management. Beall was a four-year starter and two-year captain for the Yellow Jackets. This is his third season at the helm of the Geneva program.

The Golden Tornadoes will be led by four seniors on the squad - Sam McCracken, Mark Zubrick, Jonah Creasy and Coert Voorhees. McCracken posted seven shutouts in 2007 with a 0.78 goals against average.

On the defensive front, Geneva will rely on veterans Chris Morshl and Gabe Kleinert for steady play.

Three sophomores - Jake McCracken, Kenton Burchardt and Bruce Fox - played significant roles as rookies for the Golden Tornado offense last year as Geneva scored 2.11 goals per game.

CU holds a 5-3 lead in the all-time series with the Golden Tornadoes. The last meeting between the schools was on Sept. 10, 2004 - a 1-0 Cedarville victory at the Roberts Wesleyan Classic in Rochester, New York.

Up Next

The Yellow Jackets make the long road trip to New York next weekend to begin American Mideast Conference action. On Friday, Sept. 5, Cedarville will take on Roberts Wesleyan at 7 pm in Rochester. Saturday, Sept. 6 finds the Yellow Jackets battling Houghton College in a match also slated to begin at 7 p.m.

Cedarville will host The Dave Jones Memorial Classic on September 12-13 with contests against Southern Wesleyan (7:30 pm) and Bethel IN (7 pm).

2008 Season Outlook

Kickers eager to see what 2008 holds

The Yellow Jackets are poised to get things turned around in the men's soccer program this fall. After ripping off 71 victories in head coach Ben Belleman's first five seasons at the helm, Cedarville has stumbled to back-to-back losing campaigns. The plan is to bring that slide to an abrupt halt.

"We have high hopes for this season," said Belleman, who enters the eighth season at his alma mater. "We have more talent than before, but we are very young. It may take a while to come together as a unit and a tough schedule will challenge us early."

Seven players who started at least 11 matches are back from last year's 7-9-3 unit that also went 3-2-1 in the American Midwest Conference. Additionally, Belleman welcomes back three other key players who missed either most or all of last season.

The responsibility of captain falls upon the shoulders of three juniors. One of those is All-NCCAA Midwest Region defender Jason Cunningham, a senior academically, who sat out the 2007 campaign with a shoulder injury. The other two are All-AMC Second Team midfielder Kyle Segebart as well as defender Ryan Chaney.

"We have good leadership on the field," Belleman stated. "I think we also have the right people in talent and character to keep us heading in the right direction."

Anchoring the defense is sophomore Tim Green. He put together an impressive rookie season as an All-NCCAA Midwest Region First Team choice and an All-AMC First Team selection. Green was the only player on the roster to start all 19 matches. He and the other backs will be playing in front of sophomore

Kevin Bender, who assumes the role as the #1 goalkeeper.

While the Yellow Jackets only allowed 26 goals in 19 contests last fall, they netted just 20 themselves. Offense, or the lack thereof, is a concern. However, Belleman is convinced they have addressed the problem.

"We are more athletic and have better offensive weapons," he explained. "We have more depth and the soccer skill that this team demonstrates will allow us to be more versatile."

Only seven goals return to the line-up. Matt George scored three times last season and Segebart netted two goals. The other two came from Jason Heuer and Zach Hill. Matt Niemiec is back after playing just three games before being sidelined with an injury. Also returning after missing the entire season is forward Matt VandeKopple. Add in a group of talented freshmen that will make a contribution and it only helps fuel the optimism.

"Team spirit and unity are a key focus," said Belleman in summary. "This group is committed to working hard and to doing what needs to be done in order to be successful."
